Striker Stefan Janic is clearly the toast of Bonnyrigg after notching a hat-trick in the White Eagles' thumping 3-1 win over the Peter Katholos-coached Leichhardt Tigers on a wet and slippery Lambert Park.

In a superb display Bonnyrigg completely dominated all aspects of the game and showed why they are the team most likely to worry league leaders Parramatta Eagles come finals time.

Coach John Turner described his side's performance as awesome and has not ruled out winning the premiership.

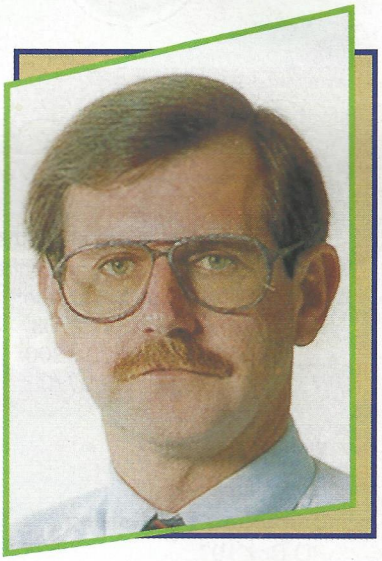
"Our clash in two weeks time with Parramatta will decide it. I think we can win and on form that will leave us level on points with the title to be decided on goal difference," he said.

"We were simply just too good for the Tigers and it's the best performance I have seen from a side in these conditions."

Janic scored twice in the first half, his second a clever near post header which turned the game for Bonnyrigg just before half time.

He completed his hat-trick 13 minutes from the end with a tremendous shot after being put through by midfielder Paul Dee.

Bonnyrigg are now a point behind the Tigers and with a game in hand should at least secure second place on the table.



Parramatta Eagles moved five points clear at the top thanks to goals from Steve Karavatakis and George Haniotis in a 2-1 win over Bankstown at Jensen Park.

A 79th minute goal from Paul Bilokapic sealed a 4-2 win for Sydney United over Canterbury-Marrickville, that virtually assured Sutherland of the wooden spoon following the Sharks one-all draw against the Central Coast.

In the other big clash Macarthur Rams and Blacktown City played a 1-1 draw at Lynwood Park to leave the battle for the last two finals places still wide open.

On The Road to the title

CENTRAL COAST vs SYDNEY UNITED

Must win game for Central Coast if they are to make the finals. They must beat the teams below them on the table if they are to progress. Moved up one place to fourth but are level on points with both Blacktown and Bankstown, while Macarthur is just a point away. Probably should have had a win at Sutherland but found it difficult to beat Sharks keeper Paul Henderson. Are playing well enough as seen by their last home win over in form Bonnyrigg, but just need to convert their opportunities. Sydney United made it back onto the winners circle last weekend with a 4-2 win over Canterbury. Have improved in the last month but are still finding life in the Super League quite tough. Have moved well away from the bottom of the table, so it remains to be seen whether they will be as motivated from now on.

RECORD: Have never met at Pluim Park but in the earlier clash at United this season, United scored a hard fought 1-0 win.

CONCLUSION: Although the Coasties have a cup match midweek against Parramatta they should still win this game comfortably. They are playing well and have too much to play for at the moment.

BLACKTOWN CITY vs PARRAMATTA EAGLES

At the start of the season, you might have been forgiven for thinking that this game just might decide the premiership title race. But football is a funny game and this clash sees Blacktown battling just to stay in touch for a finals berth. The Eagles however have met all expectations and are sitting nicely on top with a five point cushion over Leichhardt. While this could leave some complacency in a side, it won't with the Eagles as these two have been fierce rivals for many years and love nothing better than to beat each other. The Demons did well to hang on against Macarthur after being a man down for half a game but Cutler's loss in a major blow. His speed and defensive work has been excellent in recent weeks and with some players carrying niggling injuries Bob Daley is having to dig deep. Parramatta do have to play a cup match against the Coasties midweek which could knock them about a bit, which might be the only thing in the Demons favour.

RECORD: Have met on seven occasions at Gabbie, with the home side winning three times and Parramatta twice. The Demons have won the last three clashes at home.

CONCLUSION: Is really a must win game for Blacktown. A loss is not the end of the world but it would make it terribly difficult. They will be desperate but Parramatta should have all the answers and that little bit more in reserve for a win.

BANKSTOWN CITY vs ST. GEORGE SAINTS

Three losses on the trot is not what the doctor ordered at Bankstown. The funny thing is though, they probably should have at least one win from those and are not playing that badly. They have had the ideal draw but face a tough final few matches in the run to the finals especially when you consider they have the bye in the last round. For them it is two wins from their last two games or forget the finals. The fact they are against two teams who are fighting to avoid the wooden spoon makes it no easier as they maybe playing for their Super League survival. The Saints had the bye last weekend but before that had recorded four draws and a win. Have proved hard to beat but are not the best at getting wins either. Last four draws have all been against finals contenders so they will go into this match with every confidence of getting a result.

RECORD: Have met at Jensen on four occasions with the Lions winning three and the Saints just once,with the Lions winning the last three.

CONCLUSION: Bankstown also have a tough Waratah Cup match against Stanmore which is rather untimely. With so much to play for you would have to pick the Lions especially at home where they have proved hard to beat.

BONNYRIGG W.E. vs MACARTHUR RAMS

Macarthur faces a daunting task to get a necessary result at Bonnyrigg. Considering the Eagles brilliant win over Leichhardt last weekend and their good form overall the Eagles are clear favourites in this game. But Macarthur are fighters and will give this game a hell of a shake. And when this game is probably make or break for the Rams, you know they will give it their all. Bonnyrigg were fantastic against Leichhardt in wet and slippery conditions. Their ball movement and quickness in getting the ball forward makes them a very dangerous side and hard to stop. Leichhardt had the best defence in the league and struggled to score. Stefan Janic's form is terrific with five goals in the last two games. They are still confident they can win the premiership and coach John Turner said he wants a big win in this game to get them primed next week.

RECORD: Only met twice at the Serbian Centre, with one win apiece. Macarthur upset Bonnyrigg last year to record one of their few wins in 1996.

CONCLUSION: It's a tough ask for the Rams and one which I would not like to be in. Bonnyrigg's confidence is riding high and I expect them to win well at home.

CANTERBURY M/VILLE vs LEICHHARDT TIGERS

Inner city rivals for many years now and as always it should be a hard fought physical affair. Leichhardt will be licking their wounds after their poor performance against Bonnyrigg. How ironic it is that these two will meet twice within a matter of days. In the cup on Wednesday and then in this game. The fact they meet on Wednesday makes it hard to judge the outcome of this game, for a number of variables come into it. Which ever side wins the Cup tie will get a lift on Sunday. Whatever the outcome on Wednesday one thing is for sure is that it's Canterbury's last throw of the dice of making the finals. They must win every match from here on and considering the quality of their opponents that is highly unlikely. For Leichhardt their chances of winning the title have faded but can look forward to a top three spot at least. Form for the finals is what Peter Katholos will be working on.

RECORD: Have met 20 times at Canterbury with the scoreline 7-6 in front of the home team and seven draws. Last three games have ended in draws.

CONCLUSION: Canterbury's enthusiasm may have waned a little for this game after last week's loss to Sydney United. Despite their bad loss last week, I would expect Leichhardt to come back and notch up a win.

COVIC THWARTS LIONS

Leichhardt Tigers young keeper Ante Covic confirmed his stature as one of the best in the Super League, with a superb performance to thwart Bankstown City in their deferred Round 17 game at Lambert Park.

On a fresh Wednesday night, the Tigers won by a single goal to John Buonavoglia after 36 minutes and with Covic in great form, held off a fast finishing Bankstown.

The win put the Tigers just two points behind Parramatta Eagles, which has guaranteed an exciting finish to the season.

Bankstown had the better of the early opportunities with Nick Bosevski in particular was looking dangerous.

also causing problems and his ball in behind the defence saw Eagleton get into the box only for Covic to come off his line quickly and smother Eagleton's shot.

Leichhardt should have opened the scoring on the half hour but Eric Williams hit his free header straight at Robert Raguz in the Lions goal with the goal at his mercy.

In the 36th minute though they did score when a long clearance by Covic was nodded on by Williams to Mite Talcevski who in turn put John Buonavoglia through who beat the advancing Raguz with a low shot.

With half time approaching Covic then pulled off two great saves. His first was at full stretch to turn away Saso Boskovski's 30 metre free kick which he hit with the outside of his foot and then saved a Bosevski header at point blank range with a great reflex save.

Five minutes after the break Covic was beaten for the only time in the game, Bosevski hitting a sharp shot from six metres out but unluckily for him it hit the post.

Eight minutes later Covic saved his side again, this time with his legs from Gomez's close range shot.

Williams just missed with a sharp header from a corner which came against the run of play.

Stout defending by the Tigers kept the Lions at bay but with just ten minutes left, Covic was again to the rescue when he smothered Bosevski's shot after he got free in the box.

Williams again had the chance to wrap it up with five to go but his chip went wide with an empty goal beckoning.

Leichhardt: Covic, Talcevski, Driene (Milicevic), Pettenon, Macolino, Bourke, Williams, Buonavoglia, Juric, Bazdaric (Smith), Koch.

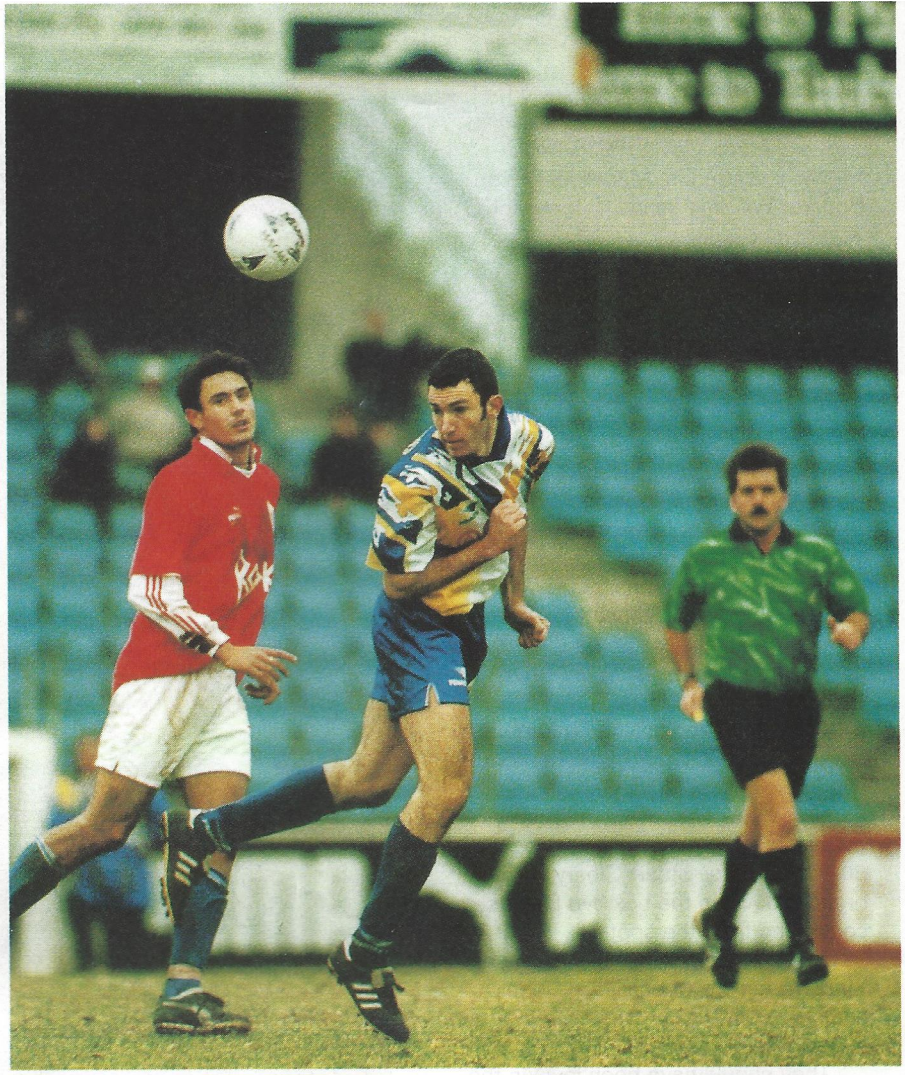
Bankstown: Raguz, Boskovski, Younis, Gomez, Eagleton, Todoroski, Velevski (Hawrysiuk), Bosevski, Luksic (Van Bentum), Josevski (Zafirov), Vulic.

AWESOME WHITE EAGLES

Awesome! was the best way to describe Bonnyrigg White Eagles demolition job on Leichhardt Tigers at Lambert Park.

On a wet and slippery pitch, Bonnyrigg played superb football to eventually run out 3-1 winners, with Stefan Janic netting all three goals.

Leichhardt had no answer to Bonnyrigg's precision passing game and pace in attack and in Janic they had a striker that knew where the goals were.



Canterbury's two goal hero George Kategiannis heads towards goal.

But while Janic did his job to perfection the rest of his teammates pitched in as well.

Coach John Turner was stoked after the match, saying: "We were simply awesome today. The boys stuck to the game plan which in the conditions was always going to be hard."

"We really should have won by more in the end," he added.

Janic, who now leads the goalscorers list with 13, showed early that he might be the dangerman with a quick snap shot on the turn which went over the bar. Then in the 15th minute he opened the scoring when hesitant Leichhardt defence allowed James Warburton to lay off to Janic, who sold his man a dummy before slotting a low shot inside Ante Covic's left hand post.

John Buonavoglia should have capitalised on Fabio Macolino's long clearance from defence in the 28th minute but just when he was about to shoot Warburton recovered to put the little striker off his shot.

But in the 34th minute Juric put the Tigers back on level terms when he converted from the penalty spot after Buonavoglia was nudged off the ball in the box by Milan Gajic.

Then came Leichhardt's best spell of the game with Eric Williams passing instead of going onto shoot when through, Jeremy Pettenon going centimetres over the bar and Buonavoglia having a shot saved at close range by Mike Gibson.

Leichhardt were made to pay for those misses a minute before the break, when a corner on the right by Johnny Ghisso was crossed to Janic at the near post and his flicked header caught Covic off guard as it sailed into the net.

The second half was all Bonnyrigg as they continued to play fast attacking football. But it wasn't until the 77th minute that they were able to wrap up the game when Dee played a magnificent ball in behind the defence and Janic ran onto and slammed his shot past a badly exposed Covic for his hat-trick.

Leichhardt: Covic, Talcevski, Milicevic, Pettenon, Macolino, Smith, Bourke, Williams (Ianni), Buonavoglia, Koch, Juric.

Bonnyrigg: Gibson, Richardson, Gajic (Sacco), Mancino, Luff, Janic, Ghisso, Warburton, Watton, Dee, Van Egmond.

SUB RESCUES RAMS

Alan Lindley came off the substitutes bench to rescue Macarthur Rams from an embarrassing defeat to Blacktown City at Lynwood Park.

With Blacktown down to ten men for the entire second half after Steve Cutler was sent off, Macarthur failed to make a great impression on the Demons goal until Lindley's 79th minute equaliser.

He started and finished the move for the equaliser which involved Ben Green and Eddie Clune, Lindley shooting past Fernando Greco from 15 metres.

Blacktown opened the scoring in the 6th minute after Stuart Cleary was brought down in the box, Ivo De Jesus converting from the spot.

Macarthur nearly had an equaliser in the 23rd minute when Simon Fedele headed goalward but was denied by a superb fingertip save by Greco.

They should have been level in the 37th minute when awarded a penalty of their own after Hayward was brought down but Greco saved Scott Houghton's kick.

Then just before half time Cutler received his second yellow card and his marching orders.

The second half saw Macarthur control possession but lacked penetration against a stacked and well drilled defence.

David Hayes even saved his side with a superb save to deny De Jesus a second goal and then minutes later the Rams were level.

Macarthur: Hayes, Wright, Lord, Houghton (Kasun), Reid, Clune, Fedele, Green, Rayner, Macerola (Lindley), Hayward (Crampton).

Blacktown: Greco, Doyle, Hickman, Foxe, Suzor, De Jesus, Cleary, Harding, Anderson (O'Connell), Yates, Cutler.

SHARKS STALL COASTIES CHARGE

Sutherland Sharks and in particular goalkeeper Paul Henderson, stalled Central Coast march towards the finals, with a well earned 1-1 draw at Seymour Shaw Park.

Matthew Percy dives in to try and dispossess United's Paul Bilokapic.

The draw put Central Coast into fourth position on goal difference ahead of Blacktown and Bankstown with Macarthur a point behind.

The Coasties had the better of the opportunities but Henderson was at his best to prevent a Coasties win and keep his sides hopes alive of avoiding the wooden spoon.

Henderson made early saves from Damien Brown (twice) and Paul Roberts which proved critical as his side took the lead through Andrew Dowling after excellent lead up work.

However within a minute the Coasties were level when Henderson after turning Brown's shot for a corner, could do nothing with Andrew Clarke's shot after his defence had only half cleared the corner kick.

Matthew Lowe nearly had the Coasties ahead minutes later but his 25 metre shot struck the crossbar.

Play was from end to end in the second half with Henderson denying Nathan Byrn, Roberts and Clarke while Coasties keeper David Fitzsimmons pulled off a great save to deny Grant Bard a goal for the home side.

Sutherland: P Henderson, Lerond, S Henderson, Cabassi, Clinch, Bard, Christodoulou, Pillay, Moszny, Dowling, Hobbs.

Coasties: Fitzsimmons, Lovie, Drysdale, Lowe, Brown, Preston (Steele), Thompson, Byrn, Knight, Clarke, Roberts.

By PETER KOGOY

Parramatta Eagles closed to within one point of competition leaders Sydney Olympic after coming within a whisker of sweeping Warringah Dolphins in all grades at the weekend.

The Eagles beat the Dolphins in 13s, 15s and 16s with only the under 14s spoiling Parramatta's perfect record at Melita Stadium.

The 10 points Parramatta picked-up sees them trail Olympic by the narrowest of margins with Blacktown City in third place, nine points adrift of the competition leaders.

Sydney Olympic's charge for points was stalled at Seymour Shaw where Sutherland Sharks recorded wins in the 14s and 16s, but finished on the end of a 5-1 hiding in the 15s and a one-all draw in the 13s.

The big winners in Super Youth League at the weekend was the Gladesville Hornsby Association who made it a clean sweep of Sydney United on their visit to Croatia Park.

The best result for Gladesville Hornsby came in the under 15s, registering a healthy 3-1 win which took the association into fourth place overall behind Olympic, Parramatta and Blacktown City.

In other Super Youth League results Blacktown, with wins in both the 15s and 16s, picked up seven of the available 12 points at the expense of Marconi.

It was a similar story at Marconi No 2 Oval where Southern District edged out Macarthur Rams in the 15s, and 5-2 in the 16s.

The Rams only win on the day came in the 13 age division, winning 3-0.

The local South Coast derby at Brandon Park between Wollongong City and Illawarra Lions, saw the Wolves edge out the Lions seven points to four.

The Wolves opened their campaign against the youngsters from the steel city's southern suburbs with a 8-3 win in the 13s, followed by a 2-0 result in the under 15s.

But Wollongong City couldn't sustain the effort in a rescheduled round 12 match against Parramatta

Revolution

Eagles, losing the 14s, 15s and 16s by handsome margins.

The Lions on the other hand fared a little better picking up four points at the expense of Macarthur Rams at Lynwood Park.

In Division One AC United, Bonnyrigg White Eagles and Leichhardt Tigers took out maximum points at the expense of CSi Schofield, Granville Association and the St George Saints.

Other big winners were Bankstwon over Rockdale City Suns and Blacktown Association in their visit to Parklands Oval, Kuringai.

Down in second division Ryde City showed their class by picking up a handy 10 points at the expense of Mt Pritchard, while Hawkesbury City edged out Springwood 9-3, while Mt Druitt Town Rangers scored wins in the 15s and 16s to edged out the lads from the Blue Mountains, 8-2.

Canterbury are clear leaders in the 13s, Stanmore Hawks hold a point leader of Hawkesbury City in the under 14s, St Johns Park just edge out Hills United, while Canterbury and Ryde City are on level pegging in the under 16s going into this weekend's round of matches.

And speaking of the Rosebuds, they picked up three good wins in the 13s, 14s and 15s against Gladesville Hornsby.

Likewise Marconi Fairfield travelled to the South Coast and picked-up a trifecta of wins against the Illawarra Lions at BHP Sports Ground.

The one result that didn't go the Fairfielders way was in the under 14s, which saw the Lions edge the visitors out 1-0.

It was a different result at Brandon Park where Wollongong City reversed the result against visiting Sydney United.

The results were close with the odd goal making all the difference to the final outcome in the 15s and 16s.

A glut of goals helped the Eagles pick up seven points at the expense of the Sutherland Sharks, with the 14s putting four past the home side and five in the under 16s.

Macarthur Rams and Blacktown City reported mixed results in their series of matches at Lynwood Park, with City's under 14s winning 5-1 and 5-0 in the 16s.

But the Rams turned the tables on the visitors, winning the under 13s 2-1 and the under 15s 3-0.

In Division one, there appears to be little to stop the Leichhardt Tigers' march to promotion, with another near whitewash, this time against Bankstown at Lambert Park.

The Tigers won the 13s, 14s and 16s, only droppoing two points in a nil-all draw in the 15s.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles defied their lowly position on the combined table by picking up 10 valuable points at the expense of the Rockdale City Suns at the Serbian Centre.

The performance was highlighted by a strong 3-1 result in the under 14s and a 2-1 win in the under 16s.

In other results the St George Saints edged out Penrith at home, while both CSI Schofields and Eastern Suburbs finished the better of their opponents in their away matches to Granville and Nepean.

Kuringai finished on equal terms with Southern Branch at Parklands as did the Blacktown Association in their series of matches at home to AC United at Francis Park.

Looking at the overall picture Leichhardt Tigers are clear leaders in their division from Blacktown Association, Eastern Suburbs, while St George and AC United are battling it out for fourth spot.

In Division two, Canterbury Association virtually assured themselves of promotion after picking up 12 maximum points at the expense of Parramatta City at Punchbowl Oval.

The Berries best result had to wait until last, with the under 16s putting five goals past the Parramatta defence.

They now lead the Stanmore Hawks by 19 points, with Ryde City and Mt Pritchard in a tug-o-war for third and fourth place.

The Hawks lost ground to Canterbury after managing just one win, in the under 15s, in their home series against Ryde City at Pratten Park.

Ryde City stunned the Hawks supporters with wins in the under 14 and under 16 divisions.

Looking at the various age tables, Canterbury are unbeaten after 17 rounds in the under 13s, having picked up a maximum 48 points.

Stanmore, Canterbury and Ryde are in a three-way struggle for the minor premiership in the 13s, while Hills United find themselves three points clear of St Johns Park in the under 15s.

A classic battle for top honours is looming in the under 16s with Canterbury Association and Ryde City on level terms on 34 points, followed by Mt Pritchard and Stanmore Hawks.

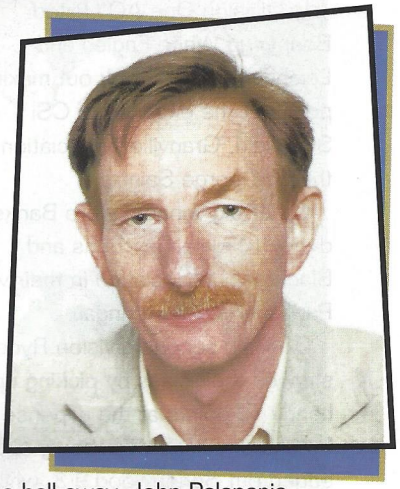
First Division Weekend Review

PAUL GOODWIN REPORTS



Competition leaders Hurstville City Minotaurs notwithstanding some on and off field shenanigans, collected the expected three points by beating luckless Warringah Dolphins at a damp St George Stadium on Wednesday night.

They took the lead in the 36th minute after a Ricky Somboli corner on the right had been nodded on by Peter Papoy this and Roy Papalia in the Dolphins' goal had pushed the ball away. John Palapanis was then well placed to head home from close range.

From another Somboli cross in the 69th Tom Pontidas scored with another header which the keeper caught, falling backwards and over the line, the goal being given on an assistant's signal to referee Steve Gillespie.

New recruit John Manalopoulos was sent off, along with Frank Mesiti from Warringah in a game which saw some disagreements among the victors at various stages and the Minotaurs were already without George Zabatakis and an injured Gerry Mamolis.

Mount Pritchard recorded another solid win when they accounted for Stanmore 1-0 at Ernie Smith Reserve the same evening.

Frank Portolesi was the scorer and the win continued the unbeaten run for coach Lee Sterrey which sees the Mounties poised to claim a top five spot after looking gone for all money a few weeks ago.

DOLPHINS TOAST SHERRY

A big effort by locals Warringah Dolphins earned them a valuable point from a scoreless, but by no means uninteresting game at Cromer Park on Saturday.

Illawarra had little go their way in front of goal where they spent some time, especially in the second half as the understrength Dolphins began to tire.

John Sherry carried the Warringah attack manfully and was unlucky not to get a breakthrough as Anton Avellino stood in his way on numerous occasions with some stunning saves.

At the other end Rocco Papalia had his moments too, at one stage pushing a low volley from Darko Delovski onto his left post and when the ball rebounded across the face a defender gratefully conceded the corner.

Hassan El Khansa also did well and Dolphins' coach Agenor Muniz was also full of praise for youngster Mark Moult and Kelvin Foster.

BIG WET FLUSTERS HAWKS

A sunny afternoon was not enough to save this vital fixture for both sides as the ground was closed for the weekend by the council.

Stanmore have a heavy schedule and are beginning to lose their way a little at this crucial stage of the season.

Greystanes needed to play to keep up their recent form and make up ground on rivals Illawarra.

EASTS AND RYDE BATTLE THE ELEMENTS

In dreadfully overcast conditions and a steadily waterlogging pitch two fine sides provided some excellent entertainment for a sparse crowd at a lightning encircled Wentworth Park on Sunday.

Neither side was prepared to abandon their free flowing style and used the open spaces to advantage.

Easts always looked at their most dangerous once they got numbers into the goalmouth with some clever footwork almost bringing Ryde undone on more than one occasion.

Ryde played some intelligent passing passages of play to gain a good share of the ball and to create many solid chances.

Matthew Borg fired against the crossbar in the first half and twice found the side netting in the second, but did net the Gunners' goal in the 59th which could have been enough to settle the issue.

His partner up front, Tim Gledhill, also had his moments, missing from close range, but was the provider when in receipt of a ball picked up in the centre of the park by defender Andy Stratford which led to Borg's important goal.

Easts looked like troubling Ryde most when Steve Lawrenson or Michael Reda were on the ball and it was from some good work by this pair, after a quick throw from Gary Spivac on the right that the home side conjured up an equaliser.

It came just eight minutes after Ryde had broken the deadlock as Lawrenson laid the ball on for Craig Sharpley to stab home from close range and the draw was the way it finished in driving rain and with passes still finding their men as both sides continued to the finish to strive for the winner .

BATHURST IN BULLISH MOOD

Fairfield Bulls were looking pretty pleased with themselves when they raced to a 2-0 lead against Bathurst at Nineveh Field on Sunday.

As early as the third minute Nihad Ahmed put a left footed volley past a despairing Braydon Barcham after good work by both Richard Varga and Ricky Giometti on the right.

Then, again from Varga's promptings, Sasha Talevski was able to crash a shot in off the underside of Barcharm's crossbar in the 35th minute and Bathurst did not look to be travelling at all well.

Fairfield eased off enough to let Bathurst break back into contention with a 45th minute goal from the dynamic Archie Thompson who got on the end of sound move by several players.

Shaun Dixon began the move on the left and let Scott Mutton take over with a cross which saw Adrian Renike nod the ball back from the far post.

Thompson was able to use his skills to advantage and go on and beat Frank Mikuletic in the Fairfield goal.

Bathurst snatched a draw with a typical piece of Scott Mutton brilliance in the 72nd minute.

Shane West played an early ball down the line to Mutton, leaving the prolific scorer with the task of drawing Mikuletic and finishing in god style.

Appeals for a Fairfield penalty when Adam Collins appeared to bring Varga down in the box towards the end was turned down, while Brad Gallard almost won it for Bathurst with a diving header which the Bulls' keeper got across to brilliantly in the dying stages.

MINOTAURS LOSE AT THE HILLS

Things are not as good as they look for the Minotaurs at present.

Despite a midweek win they have Louis Dounis stranded in the doldrums and a side which seems to find more to complain about as each game passes.

This time they competed well against Hills, but the day had turned out badly for them when they lost both the Under 18 and Under 21 games, sacrificing the lead in the latter to their opponents here.

Hills were primed for this first grade game too, though player-coach Lawrie McKinna was enjoying the sunnier climes of Queensland at the weekend.

Good defence was the order of the day for both sides with Minotaurs unable to detect a chink in the Hills' armour.

Hills broke the deadlock when Jason Eagar got away down the right and pushed the ball through to Bernie Voloder. Voloder, who had a great match, laid on a perfect pass for Kevin Lester to run onto and beat the keeper with a cool finish in the 75th minute.

Losing key defender Laurence Hall soon after Hills hung on in a defiant show against the leaders who have now lost three of their last four matches and are now sensing that the formality of a premiership is now more than that and must be worked for all over again.

MOUNTIES NO WANDERING STARS

West have been finding it hard lately and despite some solid work by Johnathan Langan and Matthew Richardson as usual and a few nice runs by Trent Worrall they had little show against a well drilled Mount Pritchard side at Cook Park on Saturday.

Darren Iocca did the spade work for Frank Cosentino to score the first goal for Mounties in the 7th minute and it was only a matter of time before the second goal arrived to deflate Wests.

Joe Bruni got to the byline in the 61st and cut the ball back for Ante Zizic to rifle the ball home from the edge of the 18 yard box.

Eric Lynch was a tireless worker for Mounties and along with Vladan Radic, Cosentino and Zizic played his part in the convincing win by the home side.

WHEN LIGHTNING STRIKES

Warringah Dolphins and Belmore Hercules are having a rotten run with the weather.

Eight three minutes into the reserve grade game the heavens opened and the lightning grew so fierce that the referee abandoned the game. There was then no way that the first grade could go ahead as it was too dark once the storm subsided and so these clubs must come back a third time.

LIONS 'ONLY JUST' OVER AUBURN

Illawarra beat the Auburn United side by the odd goal in five at a windswept Ian McLellan Park on Sunday, needing a Darko

Delovski penalty to seal the win in the 85th minute.

Two fine crosses from Tony Trpcevski led to the first two goals for the Lions, netted by Chris Jankulovski in the 53rd and by Sasha Dimoski in the 73rd, the latter after Velemir Kupresak had nodded the ball on for the tidy finish.

Auburn scored their first in the 75th from Martin Abi Arrage and then got a penalty themselves to draw level in the 76th, Robbie Issa being the successful spot-kick taker.

It set up the grandstand finish and the winner by Delovskli after a shot from Jankulovski had been handled by an Auburn player.

OFFICIALS PROBE ROCKDALE

Incidents just before and during the half time break led to the abandonment of this game at the Rockdale Soccer Centre on Sunday as the weather closed in and the prospect of a wash out hung in the air.

Penrith had scored twice in the first half, the second goal from the penalty spot from Brett Buckpitt causing some anguish to a section of the home team's supporters who made their feelings known to the match officials.

Following the half time whistle one Rockdale player was shown a red card.

Darren Read scored the other 'goal' in a game which Penrith needed to win to keep ahead of Illawarra Lions, their nearest rivals.

None of the officials were prepared to continue and the Federation must now decide whether to award the points to the Panthers.

BRIEF WEEKEND PREVIEW

Clubs are faced with a huge task in completing their fixtures this year and the remaining three weeks are going to test the mettle of many in this division.

On Thursday night northside neighbours Ryde City and Warringah must trek to Popondetta Park to play a catch up game and Warringah then has to tackle Auburn at Mona Park on Saturday. Any points they pick up look like being too late to get them out of the relegation spots but may help them avoid the wooden spoon.

Saturday also sees Belmore against another poorly placed club West Wanderers who always try hard and have a habit of doing well at Blick Oval. A Wests' win is a distinct possibility.

Penrith must beat Illawarra Lions to stay ahead of the side from the South Coast who are tough customers these days. The Panthers look to have the edge here.

Bathurst must be strong favourites to beat Rockdale who have gone backwards lately. Toni Salev has left for Perth and several others have been out of form for the Suns, while Bathurst are usually good value at home.

Rockdale will also find it hard to win on Sunday at home to Warringah whose punishing schedule may be enough to help the Suns record along overdue win.

Fairfield must be fancied to beat Greystanes at Nineveh Field, a game the Stanes need desperately to win to stay in touch with Illawarra the side which provides their main obstacle in avoiding the drop.

Ryde need to beat Hills to keep pressure on Minotaurs who are home to Mount Pritchard in a game which will be a big challenge for them at Hurstville Oval.

Belmore backs up against Eastern Suburbs at Blick Oval on Sunday and it will be a shock if Easts do not win this one.

TEAM TALK

Munro out for season

The news for Blacktown has not improved in the last few weeks with Stuart Munro out for the rest of the season after suffering ligament damage against Leichhardt.

The former Glasgow Rangers star had only joined the Demons mid season and his loss is just another blow to the Demons poor season to date. At 34 it remains to be seen whether Munro will play again as it appears to be a serious injury.

• The NSW Super League select recently played an English Defence Force team at Valentine Park and came away with a respectable 2-2 draw.

• Parramatta Eagles midfielder Christian Ortiz is currently trialling with several clubs in Spain.

• Canterbury Marrickville released on loan, John Manolopoulos to 1st Division leaders Hurstville City Minotaurs. Manolopoulos is a handy utility player and can be seen quite regularly playing between defence and attack.

• Ante Covic's rise this season has been nothing short of sensational. As understudy to State keeper Frank Mikuletic he would have expected to be in reserve grade for most of the season. But the 22 year old got his chance when Mikuletic went for trials overseas and he hasn't looked back, so much so that Mikuletic has been forced to go and look for 1st team action with Fairfield Bulls.

Covic from all reports is being scouted by several National League clubs and has already had trials with one.

• It is also reported that his teammate Ante Juric will back in the National League next season with a Sydney club!

• Nick Theodorakopoulos has been spotted at quite a few Super League matches this season. The Wollongong Wolves coach has been keeping an eye on several of his players that have been loaned out to clubs but I'm sure he is also looking to add a number of players to his squad.

Theodorakopoulos did very well last season at one stage a Top Six contender and he did it with a number of players from the State League. Several included Anthony Surjan, Nikolce Joseski and Jason Connolly.

• Milos Milovanovic must be destined for greatness. The young Blacktown striker scored on his 1st grade debut and now joins an illustrious group which includes none other than all time legends Bobby Charlton and Kevin Keegan plus Australian favourite Robbie Slater. Can Milos scale the same heights one wonders.1

WARATAH CUP

Blacktown City and Uni of NSW are the first teams through the final 16 of the 1997 Waratah Cup.

The Demons overcame a determined challenge from Illawarra giant killers Lysaghts. The 3-1 victory came in the second half with scored locked at 0-0 at the break.

Lysaghts had previous victories over Eastern Suburbs and Macarthur Rams and tested the out of form Demons for much of the game.

Blacktown gained the ascendancy through goals from Stuart Cleary and Dean Harding, plus one from substitute Milos Milovanovic, while Stephen Krishna scored Lysaghts lone goal.

Second Division Uni of NSW surprised Ryde City to win 5-4 on penalties after scores were locked a one apiece after extra -time.

Ryde City challenging for 1st Division honours this season were expected to be too strong and duly took an early lead through Matthew Borg.

However The Students showed their fighting qualities with an equaliser via Victor Jago and fought hard to keep the scores locked at full time.

In the battle of nerves in the shootout, it was the unfortunate Alan Welsh with the last kick to tie it up who missed the goal altogether and allowed Uni to progress through.

These two teams will be joined by another six sides plus one lucky loser from Round 5.

The remaining six games in Round 5 will have been played on Wednesday night.

The Round of 16 takes on a new look this year with a Round Robin series scheduled. The first round of this series will take place on the Wednesday following the Super League Grand Final, the second round is on the Sunday and the last round will be played on the following Wednesday.

The two leading teams from each group will then progress to the quarter finals.

DRAMA AT UNITED

There was drama aplenty at Sydney United Sports Centre as nine men United held on to record a 4-2 victory over Canterbury Marrickville.

Three players in all received their marching orders with United down to nine with more than a half remaining.

However the damage was achieved early with Denis Alilovic showing good control to beat Steve Tolios in the 10th minute.

Then in the space of ten minutes, United were awarded two penalties with Tony Krslovic only able to convert one.

But with a two goal cushion, United suddenly found themselves on the back foot when first Scott Xuereb and then Joe Moric were sent off for swearing.

George Kategiannis then pulled a goal back for Canterbury but Mark Rudan restored the two goal cushion just before half time.

Canterbury fought back through Kategiannis in the 60th minute but when Steve Christoforidis was sent off they lost that advantage and United scored a fourth from Paul Bilokapic.

United: Crews, Maric, Moric (R/C), Xuereb (R/C), Rudan, Rasmus, Krslovic, Badrov, Alilovic (Brcic), Bilokapic, Griffiths (Angievski)

Canterbury: Tolios, M Raeburn, Hantzis, Shepherd (Tsigolis), Percy, Mendes, Jerkovic, Christoforidis (R/C), Nikas, Ilic, Damjano.

EAGLES DOWN LIONS

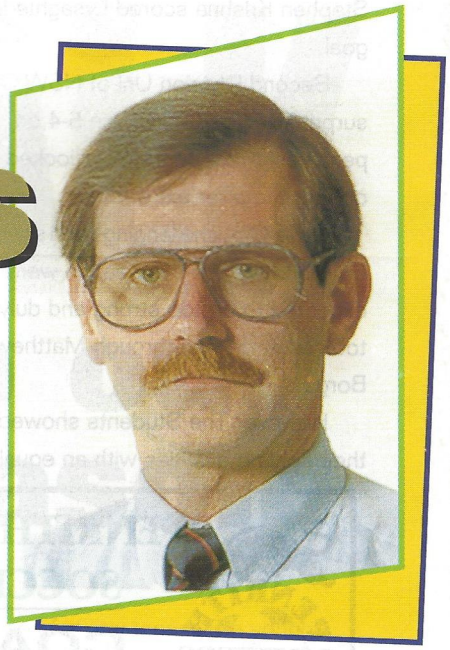
Parramatta Eagles downed Bankstown City Lions 2-1, with an early onslaught at Jensen Park.

The Eagles scored twice in the first 20 minutes through Steve Karavatakis and George Haniotis.

Bankstown came back in the second half and scored with 20 to go from Bobby Zafirov but were unable to get an equaliser.

Kicking Goals

Peter Kogoy looks at the World Game



THE Olyroos continued their dominance over South Africa with a 2-0 win in the soccer international at the Bruce Athletics Field last weekend.

Goals by Brett Emerton and Carlos Gonzales - one in each half - ensured Australia's ascendancy over the South Africans at Olympic level.

The win followed a win and a draw for Australia when the teams met in South Africa last year.

The Olyroos had an early chance when Emerton was tackled from behind and Vince Grella curled the free kick straight into the path of the oncoming Kostas Salapasidis, but the striker's shot was just wide.

Soon after, a strike from South Africa's Juniad Hartley, also from a free kick, had Australian goalkeeper Peter Zois diving to save.

The opening goal came after 33 minutes when Bill Damianos floated a free kick from left field for Emerton to reach and head home.

Quinton Fortune, reputedly the best of the South Africans, lived up to his reputation in the 41st minute when he jinked past two defenders before putting in a dangerous cross that Buddy Farah was grateful to hack away for a corner.

Gonzales employed his head to good effect 12 minutes after halftime when he notched his goal by flicking a cross from Salapasidis over the head of South African goalkeeper Wayne Roberts.

Lucky Mhlathi later made a strong run through the middle for South Africa, but had the ball whipped off his feet by Tainsel Baser before he could get a sight at goal.

The Olyroos back-up against the South Africans again this weekend at 3pm Saturday at Wollongong's Brandon Park.

UTS Olympic defender Ivan Zelic is following in the footsteps of his older brother Ned after being appointed captain of the Olyroos soccer squad for a two-match series against South Africa.

Six years ago Ned Zelic shot soccer briefly into the forefront of Australian sport when his two goals against Holland enabled the Olyroos to qualify for the Barcelona Olympics.

Now Ivan Zelic will lead the team, at least in its early preparations for Sydney 2000.

The teams last played in South Africa in September with Australia winning 2-0 and drawing the second match 1-1.

Australian boss Raul Blanco said the team was in its early stages but the basis would be the Young Socceroos squad which made the last 16 of the World Youth Championship in Malaysia.

"I am certainly not underestimating the South Africans," he said.

"They play a very good style of football and the games we had in their country were highly contested."

Many players were unavailable for the series because of European commitments.

"It will be the same as the national team - we will slot them in and take a look at them when circumstances permit," Blanco said.

The Olyroo squad is:

AUSTRALIA: Daniel Allsop, Tansel Baser, Simon Colosimo, Michael Curcija, Bill Damianos, Joey Didulica, Brett Emerton, Carlos Gonzales, Vince Grella, Kostis Salapasidis, Jane Talcevski, Sebastian Sincozic, Ivan Zelic, Peter Zois, Dean Culina, Andy Vargas, Buddy Farah.

Club Marconi accepted compensation of $A270,000 for Matthew Bingley, confirming the Socceroo's transfer to Japanese club Vissel Kobe.

Bingley, 25, left Sydney at the weekend to take up an 18-month contract, earning more than $50,000 a month.

He takes over from Danish international Michael Laudrup, joining Swiss international Thomas Bickel and Tunisian Ziad in spearheading the Kobe lineup.

Bingley becomes the third Australian in the J-League, with Socceroos Tony Popovic and Graham Arnold already playing for Sanfrecce Hiroshima under former natinal coach Eddie Thomson.

Meanwhile, fellow Socceroo Craig Foster is no nearer to deciding to have another shot of British football.

One of the stars of Terry Venables' Oceania campaign against Tahiti, Solomon Islands and New Zealand, Foster has just completed the first of a three year contract with Marconi.

Foster has been the centre of transfer specualtion to several English Premier clubs and Venables' club Portsmouth.

"I've left all the negotiations in the hands of Marconi official Tony Labbozzetta," said Foster, enjoying a well-earned break in his home town of Lismore.

"I'm hoping to get a clearer picture sometime next week."

Foster previsouly had trials with the famous Glasgow Rangers club where fellow Socceroo Craig Moore and Tony Vidmar now call home.

Women's Soccer

The Australian Women's Soccer Association this week announced a 20-strong squad for a tour of Europe next month.

The Matildas will play eight full internationals in the space of 26 days against the leading soccer powers of Europe, beginning with Sweden on August 6 and culminating against European champions Norway on August 31.

The squad also includes three verseas based players.

"The squad will be exposed to players of the highest quality opposition," said coach Greg Brown.

"They will come up against other national teams that we can begin to impose the style of play that will take us through the World Cup qualifiers in October next year and eventually to the 2000 Olympic Games," he added.

Head of delegation is Kerry Harris, while the two assistant coaches are Connie Selby and Kevin Groube.

The tour manager is Sarah Groube from the Australian Women's Soccer Association.

The squad is: Belinda Kitching (Qld), Bridgette Starr (N/NSW), Traci Bartlett (ACT), Cheryl Salisbury (Japan), Anissa Tann-Darby (NSW), Sonia Gegenhuber (Qld), Krystyn Swaffer (SA), Alison Forman (Denmark), Sacha Wainwright (ACT), Sarah Cooper (ACT), Sharon Black (SA), Amy Taylor (ACT), Shelley Youman (N/NSW), Julie Murray (NSW), Tammy Thornton (Qld), Kim Revell (Qld), Lisa Casagrande (ACT), Alicia Ferguson (Qld) and Amanda Patterson (USA).

The international match itinerary is: Sweden, Ostersund August 6; Hungary, Budapest August 9-11 August; Netherlands, Amsterdam August 14; Belgium, Brussels August 19; Estonia, Tallin August 23; Finland, Helsinki August 26 and Oslo, Norway on August 31.
